

I urge the Commission not to change the rules so that the Mass Media can be more consolidated. We already are feeling the effects in small towns of the absent owner. It would be even worse if TV, Radio, and newspapers are under the same ownership. I hope you will take into consideration the needs to maintain independent television and radio stations. Thank you, Jeanette Neagu